

ACerS Bulletin

bulletin

Unlock the legacy and future of ceramic innovation with the ACerS Bulletin!

Dive into the rich history and cutting-edge advancements of ceramic science and technology with the ACerS Bulletin—your essential guide to all things ceramics.

Our publication is your gateway to staying informed and inspired, whether you are engaging in academic research, supporting professional development, or simply fueling curiosity.

Inside every issue, you will find:

- Exclusive content written by industry experts and thought leaders
- Cutting-edge research breakthroughs and technical insights
- In-depth features on the latest trends and innovations in ceramic and glass materials science
- Event highlights, conference updates, and networking opportunities
- Career resources, classified postings, and educational opportunities
- Inside look at the members who advance the ceramic and glass industry toward a more sustainable future

But that's not all—every subscription comes with access to our online Bulletin Archive, which contains more than 100 years of past issues. Delve into invaluable historical perspectives and references for academic research, teaching materials, and more!

Subscribe today!

bulletin.ceramics.org/subscribe

ACerS Bulletin subscriptions and licenses

bulletin

The American Ceramic Society's subscription plan for the ACerS Bulletin is a digital-only format that includes access to all past volumes through the online Bulletin Archive.

Subscription

One-year online access to all current and past volumes of the Bulletin for an annual payment of

$995

License

Permanent online access to all current, past, and upcoming volumes of the Bulletin for a one-time payment of $9,995

Terms of Use & Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

bulletin

Terms of Use (Bulletin subscription and license)

Subscription to the American Ceramic Society Bulletin provides the subscriber access to all issues of the magazine from the past 100+ years in a digital format.

Subscription period: The subscription period will be activated upon purchase and will extend for 12 months from that date. Users cannot access the Bulletin after their subscription ends or is cancelled.

Access protocols: Subscriber access will be authenticated via IP addresses through bulletin.ceramics.org. Username/password authentication is not available. Subscribers can access the Bulletin remotely through virtual private networks (VPNs) keyed to their institution's IP addresses.

FAQ

Q: Do you support single sign-on solutions, such as OpenAthens?

A: In general, yes. Contact customerservice@ceramics.org for more details.

Q: Do you provide COUNTER metrics?

A: No, not at this time. Please contact us to discuss subscriber usage metrics via Google Analytics.

Q: Do you allow walk-in users to the subscribing institution to access the Bulletin?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you allow a non-subscribing institution to get a copy of the Bulletin from the subscribing institution by InterLibrary Loan?

A: No.

Q: I am an individual who would like access to the Bulletin. How do I subscribe?

A: Individuals who would like access to the Bulletin can become members of The American Ceramic Society. Learn more about membership options at <https://ceramics.org/membership/types-of-membership>.

Q: If I have purchased a permanent license to the Bulletin, what will my annual cost to continue my access be?

A: Nothing. A permanent license to the Bulletin is a one-time fee of $9,995, which will give the license holder lifetime access to all past and future Bulletins.